This service is provided by BHSF and is not a replacement for your own NHS GP. You may still need to see your own NHS GP or contact the emergency services if the doctor feels it is necessary. Irish female residents cannot use the service if they are, or suspect they may be pregnant. The GP Telephone Consultation Service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The online consultation service is available 08:00am to 10:00pm GMT(+00:00), seven (7) days a week, excluding UK bank holidays.
